Union Township Polling Location Change

Crossroads Precincts will move to Union Township Civic Center

BATAVIA – The Clermont County Board of Elections has announced a polling location change for five Union Township precincts: Union Township F, I, J, X and P1P will move from Crossroads Church located at 4450 Eastgate South Drive to the Union Township Civic Center located at 4350 Aicholtz Road (currently hosting precincts UN G and UN-R1R). Voting for all seven Union Township Civic Center precincts will take place in the gymnasium.

The polling location change is effective starting with the August and November 2022 elections and until further notice.

Voters affected by the polling location change should watch their mail for a bright pink postcard notifying them of the change. Notifications of the change will also be posted at the physical polling locations, on the Board of Elections website vote.clermontcountyohio.gov and updated in the Voter View search tool.

The Clermont County Board of Elections is located at 76 S. Riverside, Batavia, Ohio 45103. Questions may be directed to 513-732-7275.
